Madras.

Sir,

I have the honour to forward herewith three applications from (1) Hussain Bi, widow of C.Mahomed Sultan Sahib, (2) Khajabi Bi, widow of Sahib Hussain Sahib and 3. Lakshmavva, widow of Pujari Venkayya, late process servers of the District Munsifs' Courts of Bellary and Hospet for the grant of compassionate gratuities under G.O.No.432, Finance, Pension Department, dated 9-5-1931. Although the grant of compassionate gratuities has been curtailed vide G.O.No.Ms.686 dated 29-7-1931, these are pitiable cases as may be seen from the record of the enquiry herewith submitted.

Hussain Bi, widow of Mahomed Sultan Sahib has no property, moveable or immoveable. She is living in a ren house with her two children, a daughter [illegible] 1½ years. The record of enquiry shows [illegible] either in the general provident or life [illegible] funds to discharge a debt of Rs.[illegible]/- contracted [illegible].

2. Khajabi Bivi, [illegible] Hussain [illegible]
Rs.450/- encumbered to the extent of [illegible] amounting to Rs.440/-. As in the case [illegible] also has no income or assets. She has [illegible] 12 and 9 years respectively, of whom [illegible]

3. Lakshmavva, widow of Rajaji [illegible], [illegible] in Narayanadevarakeri village [illegible] debts. The applicant has two brothers [illegible] position to maintain her and her six minor children. It appears that she is not pregnant. [illegible] District and states that the work and conduct of the applicant's husband not satisfactory and he was not inclined to recommend the application, I do not see why his application should should be penalised for his delinquencies, which after all not very serious.

I strongly support the cases of the three applicants in question. Payments may be made at the ordinary rate in the case of Nos.1 and 2 and at the higher rate prescribed in the case of No.3.

The record of enquiry made by the Revenue [illegible] with the service registers and establishment rolls of the process-servers are herewith submitted.

Honoured Sir,

Humble petition of the widow of Pujar Venkayya, Process Server, District Munsif's Court, Hospet, showeth as follows:-

Late Pujara Venkyya was entertained in service in November 1913 and earned aapproved service of 18 years in this Judicial Department. He was a 2nd grad Process Server on Rs.14/-. He was discharging his duties to the entire satisfaction of his superiors. Suddenly he had an attack of very bad fever and expired in Feb last.

2. The petitioner was all alone living with him being solely dependant on the earnings of her leceased husband. The petitioner has got 6 childr . With the small earnings of the deceased, the petitioner ha very hard living and his earnings were scarcely enough to meet livelyhood. He has left no property except a small house to live in. The deceased had put in nearly 18 years of serv and if he had rendered the service for half a dozen years more would have enjoyed the full pension. The petitioner now left in indigent circumstances To the misfortune of the petioner he died before being eligible for pension. He has also left some debts. The young children are yet to be educated and female children are to be married.

3. The petitioner earns that Government are pleased to grant compassionate gratuity under the revised rules G.O. No. 492/28 Dated 17-6-28. The petitioner at this intricate condition recuired immediate help for her maintenance the petitioner humbly prays that special consideration be given by Government to this case in which the deceased Government Servant had been in receipt of a very low rate of pay and the petitioner be sanctioned certain gratuity.

For which act of beneolence the Petitioner every prays.
